

Ontario Women in Law Enforcement Presents 2009 Fall Training Day

Featuring

- Dr. Peter Collins- world renowned psychiatrist speaking on his study on suicide by cop
- Greg Nell Ontario Provincial Police Physiological Health Sciences Coordinator speaking on health and wellness with emphasis on shift work and emergency services workers
- Earla-Kim McColl, retired R.C.M.P. Superintendent speaking on Child Pornography related issues.

Thursday October 22nd 2009

Seneca College King Campus
13900 Dufferin Street, King City
Parking $5.00

$45.00 for OWLE/IAWP members and students (With ID)
$55.00 for non-members

Includes training sessions, lunch and breaks.

Limited Seating

TRAINING REGISTRATION FORMS CAN BE DOWNLOADED FROM OUR WEBSITE WWW.OWLE.ORG

Break out sessions to start from 8:30am to 4pm

Registration to start at 8:00am

Sponsored by the Ontario Women in Law Enforcement.