Laurie loves her family and would always speak of them.
Laurie is always the first to drop things and give a hand to anyone in need
Love camping and being together with the family

Richard Michael (40) Hawkins is as outgoing as Laurie and coaches hockey in Woodstock

Richard was willing to go that extra for his kids and those he coached , a company had a promotion.... if you bought one of their product , you got a "toque" inside , so Richard bought 24 of the items so each kid on the team would get a toque

Richard was a former hockey player with the North Bay Centennials, Toronto Marlboros (Marlies) and Kitchener Rangers. He coached in the Woodstock Minor Hockey Association, enjoyed the outdoors and golfing. Richard was a very active citizen in the Woodstock community, was a Y.M.C.A. member and worked at Intertec auto plant as a service technician. He loved NASCAR racing and went on trips to Michigan and Charlotte with his father Tom Sr., son Jordan

Cassandra Jane (14) Hawkins was a Grade 9 student at St. Mary's High School in Woodstock, where she was a member of the social justice club. She enjoyed figure skating, swimming and socializing with friends.

Jordan Michael Hawkins (12) was a student at St. Michael's Elementary school in Woodstock. He played hockey in the minor hockey association, was a Toronto Sun newspaper boy, played baseball, loved camping, swimming and fishing
