Ontario Women in Law Enforcement (OWLE)
25-Year, 30- Year, and 40-Year Service Awards

Although women have been policing in Ontario for over 100 years, it was not until 1999, the Ontario Women in Law Enforcement chose to commemorate women celebrating milestones (both civilian and sworn) in law enforcement. It began with recognizing 25 years of service and quickly grew to where we are today. For the 2016 awards banquet, we will continue to demonstrate our commitment by recognizing and honouring women who have completed 25, 30, 35 and 40 years of service in law enforcement.

These special presentation will take place during the 20th Annual OWLE Awards Banquet on Friday April 28th 2017, Mississauga Grand Banquet & Convention Centre 35 Brunel Road Mississauga ON.

We need your assistance in identifying candidates from your agency who fit the following criteria:

Woman who achieved either their 25, 30, 35, or 40 year milestone prior to Friday March 30th 2017 and who have not already been recognized in that OWLE Category.

Please forward names from your agency that qualify so that we may extend an invitation to these individuals to join us for this unique celebration. If the nominee has retired, please include a current mailing address, email address or other contact information for that person.

To allow for time to extend an invitation to all Service Award nominee, we require the list of Names by Friday March 10th 2017. Please include a contact e-mail address for each nominee. The invitations will be sent electronically. Please forward your list of names electronically, (excel sheet preferred for group submission) where necessary.

If you prefer the invitations be sent through your service, please indicate the contact person for the invitations when sending the names of nominee's

Please provide the name of a contact person for the submissions should there be any issues. The invitations if requested can be forwarded to that contact person. Forward the information requested to: president@owle.org or Lisa.Hewison@peelpolice.ca
